Xiaomi moved past Apple into the No. 3 worldwide supplier position as smartphone sales to end-users globally totalled 366 million units in Q3 2020 (down 5.7% from Q3 2019).

According to a new Gartner report, Xiaomi grew 34.9% in Q3 2020, securing 12.1% market share while overall global mobile phone sales to end users totalled 401 million units, a decline of 8.7% year-over-year.

This year, after two consecutive quarters of 20% decline, quarterly smartphone sales have started to show signs of recovery

. Despite that growth, smartphone sales remain weaker compared to the same time in 2019--even with vendors introducing multiple 5G smartphones and governments relaxing shelter-in-place instructions in some geographies.
